INCIDENTS OF NOTE:

*MPD officers seized 12.5 grams of cannabis, a small amount of suspected controlled substance along with $2286 in cash during an investigation for Retail Theft.

*The new squad car has been put into service.

*Christmas/New Years Eve traffic details were conducted. The weather play a role during the enforcement time period, however MPD did make 68 traffic stops during those details.

*During the time frame MPD had to transport prisoners to Mercer Co. (August through December) MPD transported 111 persons who had been arrested.

*Officer. Lindsey Kenney completed her probationary period on January 7th. She is a great asset to and a good fit for MPD. If you have the occasion to speak with her, please congratulate her.

*MPD did the Cops For Kids event in December. This was a great opportunity for kids from our community who are in need to interact with police officers and to go shopping for toys.

STAFF TRAINING:

*Chief Switzer attended the Mobil Training Unit Advisory Board meeting in Moline.

*TASER recertification was conducted for MPD officers. This is an annual recertification.

EQUIPMENT RELATED ISSUES:

None

Respectfully Submitted,

Chief Joe Switzer
