INCIDENTS OF NOTE:

- *Negotiations began with the FOP.
- *Chief Switzer and Mayor Davies attended the Open Table discussion held at OSFCHC.
- *MPD hired a new dispatcher who is currently in training. The new dispatchers name is Ivy Peed.
- *Several weather related events occurred which were planned for. No incidents of note as a result of the events.
- *Chief Switzer and Ken Helms initiated a project to upgrade MPD's communication capabilities. MPD will be replacing the current analog radio system with a digital radio system. This upgrade will greatly enhance MPD officer's ability to communicate safely during precarious situations. The project was funded via various seizure monies that MPD has received and by a grant that was awarded by a local foundation. Estimated completion of the project is the end of March.

STAFF TRAINING:

- *Ofc. Hepner recertified as a Standardized Field Sobriety Testing Instructor

EQUIPMENT RELATED ISSUES:

- *Exhaust fan for locker room and several restrooms burnt up. It was disconnected from the power.

Respectfully Submitted,

Chief Joe Switzer
